

Incredible Edible Mid-Peninsula

Cultivate-Educate-Nourish

MINUTES

11/7/17 at 1133 St. Francis St, Redwood City

Attendees: Claire Felong, Carol Cross, Ann Morrison, Valerie Lui, PA Moore

Barbara Wilson was in the hospital but is home and recovering.

Fruit Tree News

Alameda/Vera – Looks good, Ann is checking on it

Ann suggests taking photos of ripe and unripe fruits to post so harvesters know what to look for. "Pick When It Looks Like This!"

Sharing Food share (Ann)- still going but winding down for the season, everyone is sharing the same items.

Whole Foods/CATA (Ann/Claire)

Thanks to Pam RWCPAF/Cary CATA – Ann suggests naming the beds after them

Ongoing maintenance – had to replace dill

Signs, markers – will collaborate on signs at December meeting

Media/Awareness – Social & Other

"Symphony of Soil" movie

Financial/Legal

Board Nominations – Those attending moved, seconded and unanimously approved that Board Members remain the same: President-Claire Felong, Vice President – Carol Cross, Treasurer – Josh Shade, At Large – Ann Morrison

Financial Needs

* Insurance – Gardens/Gen'l Liability

D&O Insurance

Tree signage (Red Morton & Elsewhere) – will brainstorm at December meeting

Napa/Sonoma/Santa Cruz fire actions (acorns, tree donations, garden donations)- discussed but no action taken

Fundraising

Member pledges - Carol brought the pledge letter, a couple minor changes were recommended

Community Gardens (Other than Whole Foods)

Kainos – Jefferson Ave – Ann reports fig tree needs pruning

How to find Gardeners? Nextdoor, FB, our lists, advertise after Christmas

Next Mtg: Tues, December 5, 2017 @ Ann's

Respectfully submitted,
Claire Felong