Attendees: Carol Cross, Ann Morrison, Barbara Wilson, Claire Felong, Justin Crest, Andrew Khiev

Introductions: Justin –post doc molecular bio, gardening newbie, maintains Farm Hill garden
Andrew - plant maint & buyer @ Wegmans Nursery, now prunes trees for Bartlett Tree – interested in education & accessibility.

Admin/Finance/Legal – no actions

Fruit Trees: Red Morton –Pruning party, June 7, 4 pm, pluots & apricots did well, now gone;
Vera Orchard (Ann) –Plums ready for picking, announce online, perhaps purchase weed whacker to keep areas under trees clear?

Sharing : Share @ Ann's – Going well. Ann will send announcements to Claire to share on her NextDoor neighborhoods. Garden Share Signups at some Park Concerts (thru 8/12 6-8 pm Stafford)
Take A Bag/Give a Bag – encourage

Whole Foods Garden (Ann) – strawberries at end, tomatoes starting so announce on social media, new sign placement discouraged cig butts in strawberry bed, will need new soil.

San Mateo County Food Systems Alliance (FSA) (Claire) School gardens are interest of new FSA members, so we may re-visit that in the future.

Media/Community Awareness /Social – Justin offered to help with the webpage. Yay!

Legislative/Talking Points

Shared commitment to attend CC meetings

Downtown RWC Linear Park. Claire to contact RWC folks re: edible gardens in the city

Schedule talks with RWC Housing/Human Concerns Committee member (Kathy Recht)

Community Gardens/Composting/ Other

Green Beginnings Garden - Soil Testing, Composters/compost workshop, Irrigation (Claire)

Half Moon Bay Community Garden, Commercial Kitchen (Claire)

New members agree that RWC Parks are missing gardens and forward motion is needed. Justin suggested that tactile gardens also serve a need in communities.

Respectfully Submitted,
Claire Felong
